

Sangeeth Group

Sangeeth Group is a talented ensemble of musicians and vocalists who are passionate about creating unforgettable musical experiences. With a diverse repertoire that spans various genres, they cater to a wide range of musical tastes and preferences. From soulful melodies to foot-tapping beats, this band has something for everyone

An Official Handsuite

The purpose of this rulebook is to establish guidelines and expectations for members of the Sangeeth Group to ensure a harmonious and successful musical journey. This rulebook applies to all members, including vocalists and any supporting roles within the Sangeeth Group.

1. Membership is open to individuals who have successfully completed the sangeeth audition process and demonstrated a commitment to the objectives of the group.
2. Members are expected to actively participate in rehearsals, sangeeth, and group activities. Responsibilities include prompt attendance, preparation, and respectful collaboration.
3. Sangeeth Session schedules will be communicated in advance. Members are expected to prioritize attendance and notify the group in case of any conflicts.
4. Regular attendance is requested for the group's progress. Excessive absences may affect participation in performances.
5. Regular group meetings will be scheduled for important announcements, discussions, and addressing concerns.
6. In the event of conflicts, members should address concerns through open communication with sangeeth group. Mediation may be sought if necessary.
7. Use of Sangeeth Group merchandise is encouraged for promotional purposes and group unity.
8. Members are responsible for the care of Studio equipment and instruments during Sangeeth performances.

The primary objective of the Sangeeth Group is to deliver a captivating performance in our Sangeeth studio, promising an afternoon filled with musical thrills. Additionally, the group actively seeks opportunities to engage in outings and events. By participating in such events, we aim to create memorable experiences, share our passion for music, and contribute positively to the cultural vibrancy of our Group.

Violation of the aforementioned rules within the Sangeeth Group will result in potential suspension or expulsion from the group, contingent upon the severity of the committed offense. The decision regarding such consequences will be determined through a collective deliberation involving all remaining participants in the Sangeeth Group, excluding the victim.